Accepted Students Day 2019

Sightseeing in D.C.

The nation’s capital offers an impressive array of cultural attractions and activities. Check out washingtonpost.com/goingoutguide for additional recommendations to make your time in D.C. memorable.

Museums & the Arts

- Smithsonian Institution | Free admission
  - National Museum of African American History and Culture, 1400 Constitution Avenue NW
  - Smithsonian American Art Museum, 8th & F Streets NW
  - Hirshhorn Museum & Sculpture Garden, Independence Avenue at 7th Street SW
  - Renwick Gallery, Pennsylvania Avenue at 17th Street NW
  - National Zoo, 3001 Connecticut Avenue NW
- The George Washington University Museum and The Textile Museum, 701 21st Street NW | Current Exhibition: Rockwell, Roosevelt & the Four Freedoms | $8 suggested admission
- The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, 2700 F Street NW | Free performances daily on the Millennium Stage at 6 p.m.
- National Gallery of Art, between 3rd & 9th Streets along Constitution Avenue NW | Free admission
- Phillips Collection, 1600 21st Street NW | Admission rates vary

Explore D.C. Outdoors

- Cherry Blossom Trees, Tidal Basin near the National Mall
- Paddle Boating, Tidal Basin near the National Mall
- Lincoln Memorial, 2 Lincoln Memorial Circle NW
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial, 1850 West Basin Drive SW
- The Rock Creek Park Center and Planetarium, 5200 Glover Road NW

Evening Fun

- 9:30 Club, 815 V Street NW | Music venue
- The Park at 14th, 920 14th St NW | Lounge and nightlife destination
- District Wharf, 735 Water Street SW | Restaurants and nightlife
- CityCenterDC, 825 10th Street NW | Restaurants and high-end shops
- Ford’s Theatre, 511 10th Street NW | Historic site and performing arts venue