

JILL F. KASLE

(202) 994-8213 (office)

(202) 256-5283 (cell)

kasle@gwu.edu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 8/1982 - Present The George Washington University
Washington, DC
Associate Professor in Columbian College of Arts and Sciences and Adjunct Professor in the Law School. Courses include Constitutional Law, First Amendment Law, Telecommunications Law, Legal Research and Writing, and Oral Advocacy.
- 7/1989 – 7/2011 University Marshal
Chief ceremonial officer of the university.
- 7/1976 - 8/1982 Sidley & Austin
Chicago, IL
Analysis and development of common carrier regulatory issues in US v. AT&T. Drafted stipulations, pleadings and expert witness testimony. Prepared priority witness for trial. Participated in pre-trial negotiations. Extensive work in federal regulatory policy, telecommunications regulation, and telecommunications industry structure.
- 7/1975 – 7/1976 Supreme Judicial Court
Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Boston, MA
Special prosecutor. Investigated alleged attorney misconduct and tried administrative cases. First woman in the Commonwealth to be appointed to the position.
- 7/1973 - 7/1975 Boston University School of Law
Boston, MA
Assistant Dean. Responsible for all phases of student life.
- 7/1972 - 7/1973 Liacos & Liacos
Peabody, MA
Associate in the former law firm of the Hon. Paul J. Liacos, Chief Justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court. Worked on litigation, probate, and administrative law matters. Researched and drafted sections of Handbook of Massachusetts Evidence (Fifth Edition, Little Brown & Co., 1981).

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

Decision to Divest: U.S. v. AT&T - 1974-84 (Washington, D.C.: Communications Press, 1986, 1989.) Co-wrote and co-edited a four-volume casebook on U.S. v. AT&T with Dr. Christopher H. Sterling, professor of telecommunications at The George Washington University.

From 2009 to 2011, I was the Legal and Policy Editor for Broadband Properties, a journal of telecommunications and information policy. Selected articles include the following:

“Well, That Didn’t Take Long: An Appeal of Net Neutrality”
Broadband Properties, Vol. 32, No. 5, May/June 2011

“Consolidation in the Telecommunications Industry: Bold or Hold?”
Broadband Properties, Vol. 32, No. 3, March/April 2011, p. 46-66

“Net Neutrality or Not Neutrality”
Broadband Properties, Vol. 32, No. 1, January/February 2011, p. 66-76

“How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love Broadband”
Broadband Properties, Vol. 30, No. 8, Nov.-Dec. 2009

INTERNATIONAL TEACHING, SPEAKING & CONSULTING

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| Chile | Member of consulting team that proposed sector reforms, evaluated the regulatory structure, and wrote revisions to the telecommunications laws. Provided legal and regulatory analysis for effective transition from monopoly to privatization with an emphasis on creating and promoting competition. Co-authored final report. |
| France | Taught advanced seminar on American telecommunications industry and policy for France Telecom/Direction de Renseignement Supérieur des Télécommunications. Analyzed the legal and regulatory structure of the telecommunications industry in France. |
| Venezuela | Designed graduate telecommunications curriculum for the Ministry of Transport and Communications. Taught advanced seminar in international standards and communications policy at University of Simon Bolívar, Caracas, Venezuela. Analyzed the suitability of rules, procedures and practices governing private sector participation in the telecommunications industry in Venezuela for the Ministry of Transport and Communications. |

OTHER PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Speech Writer and Editor – wrote op-eds, articles, and speeches for two presidents of The George Washington University. Also wrote speeches for the vice-chairman of AT&T.

Consulting – Private Sector

AT&T: consultant on federal regulatory matters with a focus on broadband deployment.

Consulting – Public Sector

Department of Commerce: reviewed two rounds of applications submitted to the Broadband Technologies Opportunity Program (BTOP). Developed subject-matter expertise with four elements of the proposals: project purpose, project benefits, project viability, and project budget and sustainability.

Federal Communications Commission: consultant to a high-level manager in the Wireline Competition Bureau. Developed an in-depth knowledge of actions taken by the Commission at both the staff and the Commissioner level.

EDUCATION

1969 - 1972 Boston University School of Law
Boston, MA
Juris Doctor June 1972

Honors: Law Review ("The Right of Access to Broadcast Facilities: A Look at FCC Policy"). Awarded the Faculty Prize for leadership and scholarship. Book award (for highest grade) in Communications Law. Editor-in-Chief, student newspaper. Research assistant to Professor Paul J. Liacos.

1964 - 1969 Northwestern University
Evanston, IL
Master of Science with honors June 1969
Bachelor of Science with honors June 1968

Honors: Dean's High Honors List. Departmental academic honors.

MEMBERSHIPS

Phi Beta Kappa

