

Trachtenberg School of Public
Policy and Public Administration

Women's Leadership Fellows Program

2022- 2023

Women's Leadership Fellows Program

The Women's Leadership Fellows program is a selective cohort of women currently enrolled at the Trachtenberg School. The fellows meet monthly to build leadership and community through skills-based workshops, a mentoring program, and networking events. Monthly sessions are led by experts and professionals who volunteer their time and expertise to focus on negotiation, conflict resolution, verbal and nonverbal communication, and management skills.

Applications Open Friday, August 19th!

Our Mission

The Trachtenberg School's Women's Leadership Fellows Program prepares high-potential individuals who identify as female to be successful public service leaders through professional development, mentorship, and networking.

Learn More!

Website:

<https://tspppa.gwu.edu/womens-leadership-fellows>

Email: wlf@gwu.edu

What We Offer

- Leverage individual strengths and core competencies for leadership success
- Foster self-empowerment and confidence-building to close the leadership gap
- Master critical professional skills to successfully navigate workplace complexities
- Connect dynamic cohorts to build community capacity

Apply: <https://forms.gle/r98piTdtbleyhSBi7>

Application Deadline is Friday, September 2nd